

i dont now way the gov. has to put there nose in to some thing that people pay for that some times can be helpful with all the people that have xm radio you need to set back and coll. the tax dollers and enjoy life and go back and hound public radio that you do so well